

Nair Cordozo

Adele

Nair (pronounced nye ear) Cordozo doubles for Adele in every way. The same dynamic, soulful voice, look, age and body type, she barely had to study Adele's mannerisms. As eerie as it sounds, it all comes naturally to her. She loves to sing and was discovered at a singing academy by an entertainment company.

She's a natural Adele tribute artist, and her singing talent is exploding as she explores the music and look of other popular entertainers. She's a regular crowd pleaser with a consistently thrilling show.
